

A message from the Head Teacher

Welcome back! I hope you all had a relaxing break and the terrible weather didn't spoil it too much! It was fabulous seeing all the amazing costumes yesterday for World Book Day. The children really enjoyed the day and many were able to take home a free book thanks to the generosity of Madeleine Lindley Bookshop in Oldham.

As always, it is another busy half-term. We have a fundraising event next week for Solving Kids Cancer, which is linked to the RainBeau Appeal and Turning Kirklees Pink for Eden. We also have Easter events coming up, so lots to look forward to!

Mr Quinn

Moore Class

This week the children in Moore class have been introduced to the mini beast topic and have read to the story 'The Very Hungry Caterpillar'. We have started to imitate the story by incorporating talk for write actions to help us remember it.

Simmonds Class

Simmonds class had a wonderful day celebrating World Book Day yesterday! We had some fabulous costumes, including the full Avengers group! We had lots of fun reading stories, creating our own illustrations and talking about our own favourite books!

Seacole Class

This week we have been getting to know our new class teacher Mrs Gough. We started our new science topic which involved classifying animals into groups. We have also started looking at fractions in maths and looked at dividing into different equal groups.

Thunberg Class

This week Thunberg have started using our story map to learn our 'Rags to Riches Tale' in English. We have started a history unit on Homes in Britain since 1066. We have also produced some great comics and concertina books as part of our World Book Day activities.

Malala Class

On Thursday we celebrated world book day by dressing up as our favourite book characters! We also took part in a live lesson, wrote character descriptions and designed a new book cover for our favourite books.

Rashford Class

This week, we have had a wonderful time celebrating books on World Book Day! We discussed books, read books, read poems about books and shared our favourite books! Together we looked at a book called 'Love is...' and used it as inspiration to write our sentences about what love is, which we transformed into impressive artwork.
